

Caring and Calling Team Member

Job Description: To assist in praying for and bringing relief to those within our congregation who are facing a physical or emotional distress.

Reports to: Caring and Calling Coordinator

Communicates with: Other Team Members of Caring and Calling

Requirements and Job Duties:

- ✓ Able to empathize with those going through physical and emotional hurt
- ✓ Willing to take time to pray for others
- ✓ Willing to help provide meals from time to time for families struggling with illness

Why is this imperative? It is imperative since God has told us to love our neighbor and do good to all, especially those of the family of believers.

Success: When those facing a time of difficulty within our church are being prayed for by other Christians and God's love is on display through acts of kindness.
